

Happy to Homeschool
Here to Help!

Visit me for more homeschool resources!

Teaching our children at home is one of the most important jobs we'll ever have as parents. Homeschooling is a thrilling, never-ending learning adventure, complete with its ups and downs, highs and lows, and in-between's. It's exciting yet challenging. Each day is guaranteed to bring something new (ready or not!), but the rewards are so worth the effort!

How do I know all this? Because I'm a homeschooling parent too!

If you are interested in homeschooling advice from the perspective of a veteran teacher, a Ph.D., and a homeschool parent of 4 children, check out my blog:

www.happytohomeschool.com

Here you can read about my most intriguing thoughts on homeschooling or find more useful homeschooling tools. I'll also include helpful tips about managing a household, family, and making time for yourself as you take on home education.

Also, you can always find me on www.teacherspayteachers.com or www.funrithmetic.com if you are looking for secondary math-related products.

I hope you find great success in your decision to homeschool and am here to help! Best wishes and happy Teaching!
